Jean-Robert at Pigall's is one of 11 top-rated restaurants in the United States, according to the 2008 Zagat Survey of America's top restaurants.

The Zagat guide, covering 1,416 eateries in 42 major markets, is based on 23 million meals experienced by over 132,000 surveyors.

Jean-Robert at Pigall's scored 29 of 30, according to a press release from Zagat.

Chef Jean-Robert de Cavel opened the French restaurant on Fourth Street in August 2002. He was the chef at the famed Maisonette before opening his restaurant.

The 2008 America's Top Restaurants guide ($15.95) was edited by Shelley Gallagher and Robert Seixas and is available at bookstores and other retail outlets.
